25 Years For Gunnysack Bandit

PROCESS OF ELIMINATION AS TO THEORETICAL ADVANTAGES GIVES LOCAL SITE LEAD

$1,289,000 IS NECESSARY FOR PURCHASE OF U.S. SITE

The telegram from Washington that give details of the naval commission's report on the proposed naval base on San Francisco Bay give great encouragement to those who advocate the choice of the Albany-Richmond site.

It seems clear to us that all the indications point this way.

While it is true that the naval board headed by Admiral Helm did not pronounce in favor of any one of the four sites that are included in the list for further investigation, there is one significant passage in the report that gives great satisfaction to the advocates for the site adjoining Richmond immediately on the south, and is where the commission asks for an appropriation of $1,500,000 with which to purchase the site which may be chosen on San Francisco bay.

It appears from the report of the appraisers appointed that the Albany-Richmond site may be obtained for $1,289,000, which would leave only a comfortable margin of the million and a half asked for by the commission, to pay for incidental expenses and possibly for a little more land than originally contemplated. A9n appropriation is $1,500,000 could not be considered in

SAN PABLO WELLS IDLE SAYS HEAD

John S. Partridge, chief counsel for the city of Oakland in the water rate hearing before the Railroad Commission in that city this morning induced George Wilhelm, chief engineer for the Peoples Water company to admit that during the winter months Richmond was partially supplied with water from Lake Chabot. Wells at San Pablo so Wilhelm stated which are used during the summer monthes are idle at the present time.

Yesterday Commissioner Edgerton who is hearing the rate case of the east bay cities, attorneys and engineer Wilhelm made an inspection trip of the company's local holdings.

It was the intention to visit Alvarado, Lake Chabot, Piedmont reservoirs, the Fitchburg wells, and other properties of the company, as well as the proposed dams on creeks to divert water into the proposed San Pablo reservoir.

MARTINEZ, February 9.—Edward Hoffman of Walnut Creek although named on a trial jury a few days ago will not be able to serve his appointment.

NOMINATION OF LOCAL WOMAN SPLITS VOTE FOR PRESIDENT

War is on in fashionable clubdom circles of Alameda and Contra Costa counties over the nomination of Mrs. Katherine Smith of this city as a likely candidate for the office of president of the Alameda district of the California Federation of Womens clubs which convenes at the Hotel Oakland next Thursday.

Friends of Mrs. Lucien Langworthy, first vice president of the district are making a strong fight to assure her name a place on the ticket.

The nomination committee, of which Mrs. L. G. Leonard is chairman, has already made up an official ticket, which is headed by Mrs. Kate Smith of Richmond as the candidate for the presidency.

OFFER REFUSED

Mrs. Langworthy, it is said, was offered a place on the State credential committee by them, but refused. It has been generally conceded that Mrs. Langworthy would be offered the office, and when the news leaked out that honors had gone to Richmond the signal for a struggle for club leadership was given.

Friday morning the nominating committee will make its formal report. Rumors has it that Mrs. Smith has accepted the nomination, so doubtless her name will be offered by the committee, Mrs. Langworthy will be nominated from the floor, unless the situation changes materially in the few days remaining before the opening of the important session.

CONTEST TO BE KEEN

Both women have friends among the clubwomen in general, so the contest will be an interesting one. Mrs. Smith was formerly president of the Richmond Woman's club and also a vice president in the Alameda District.

Mrs. Langworthy is president of the Alta Mira Club of San Leandro.

FILES PERMIT FOR WHARF FRANCHISES

A. S. Karman has filed with the railroad commissioners an application for approval of the granting to him of three twenty-year franchises for wharves in Contra Costa county, there situation being Vallejo junction and Crockett on the southern shores of the straits of Carquinez.

The police of this city were last evening requested by the Oakland police department to be on the lookout for George Hicks, 18; Walter Scoville, 17; and William Baser, 16; said to have escaped from the Boy's and Girl's Aid society in San Francisco Tuesday.

The youthful party boarded a San Pablo avenue street car at Fortieth street and were last seen coming toward Richmond.

A musical and literary program arranged for the occasion was followed with the serving of refreshments.

COAL FAMINE IS CAUSE OF WOOD SAWING CONTEST

The present coal famine in this city is responsible for a wood sawing contest at the First Methodist church last night. Those assisting in providing fuel for heating the church during the winter months were, Rev. John C. Gillette, H. Mitchel, E. Seaton, G. Weston, W. Gibbons, H. Reed, H. G. Stidham and Charles Adams.

THREATENS TO KILL OFFICER FOR ARREST IN COURTROOM

(Special to Record-Herald)

MARTINEZ, Feb. 9.—Gibbering like an idiot, in his effort to feign insanity and muttering threats and curses against the lives of Policeman Dan Cox and Deputy Sheriff Dave Johnson who had arrested him, John Catchimanes, convicted Richmond street car bandit was sentenced to 25 years in San Quentin prison by Superior Judge Latimer today.

Catchimanes held up a street car at the entrance to East Richmond park on the night of December 1 at which time he made his escape with a money changer containing $3.00 from Conductor Joseph Snelling. At the time of the holdup he wore a gunnysack over his head with slits cut in it for his eyes.

Pleading not guilty to the charge to almost the last minute, Catchimanes suddenly changed his tactics feigning sudden insanity. He jibbered and cursed about the courtroom threatening the lives of the officers who had arrested him and all who had aided in his prosecution.

MIKE LUCEY DID NOT APPLY FOR A LICENSE

Attorney Lee D. Windrem is authority for the statement that Mike Lucey, the liquor man of this city never applied for a license to sell liquor in the vicinity of the San Pablo dam and therefore could not have withdrawn an application from the supervisors as stated by a dispatch from Martinez as published by the Record-Herald yesterday.

The Record-Herald knows nothing about the matter at all, but simply printed the news as it came to us from the county seat. It is stated that Lucey and Lottman are going to open up a general merchandise store in the building which they recently erected about a mile this side of the big dam project.

RICHMOND'S BOOSTERS

Richmond is proud of its two commercial organizations, the Richmond Chamber of Commerce and the Richmond Industrial Commission. They are doing excellent service for the city and Contra Costa county and are worth all they are costing their supporters and more, too.

The Richmond Industrial Commission has been in existance for many years and has been largely instrumental in the upbuilding of the city. With the single exception of the Standard Oil company that organization is responsible for about all we are in an industrial way and they are continuing the good work and doing all in their power to make of this city all that its favorable location and facilities for a great manufacturing center can lead us to hope for. The Industrial Commission maintains offices in San Francisco and Richmond.

The Chamber of Commerce is a comparatively new body and was organized a little more than a year ago and since that time has been doing the best of work for the city. Under the leadership of Senator James C. Owens, as president and J. A. Long, secretary, the Chamber is increasing in membership and financial strength and is recognized as a potent power in the commercial world in can be found there at all tind ba and about the bay region. Its headquarters are in the Elks building, at 10th street and Macdonald avenue where it maintains an excellent exhibit of the manufactured resources of this city and surrounding country. The secretary, Mr. J. A. Long can be found there at all times by the seeker after information concerning Richmond and he will take great pleasure in showing the stranger about the city and will furnish such information as may be desired. A communication addressed to the Richmond Chamber of Commerce will reach the proper channel.

Equally as well can the stranger be informed concerning Richmond and its multitudinous advantages by addressing the Richmond Industrial Commission at the San Francisco office, Hearst building, San Francisco, or at Fourth street and Macdonald avenue, Richmond. The secretary of that organization will also be pleased to take you about the city and give all information possible.

FATHER'S EXPERT ADVICE

Advice to daughters is notoriously easy to give, but it is not so sure of acceptance. With his will an Iowa father recently put some of this commodity in a letter, where it stands, confronting his girls, now that he has gone to a place so far distant that his voice is not heard.

This Iowa business man was thinking of the business he had built up and the family he was about to leave behind. In his posthumous letter he urges his daughters to be sensible in selecting the men whom they are to marry. He suggests that they would do better to remain single and take active part in the management of the business than to marry "worthless" men.

The advice is pretty good. A man may "reform" after marriage, but it is not likely. No woman should take a chance on a man who is not decent, industrious and capable at the time he is asking her to marry him. The "worthless" man is sometimes a good pleader. Promises are easily made.

Marriage is the great adventure for the girl. And her father knows better than she what an unfortunate marriage means. His advise is that of an expert, provided he has brains and character enough to have made a success of his own life.

FEBRUARY ANNIVERSARIES

During the month of February the people of America celebrate the anniversaries of the two greatest figures in our national history — George Washington, born February 22, 1732, and Abraham Lincoln, born February 12, 1809.

The eighteenth century lies far back in the years, and we of the twentieth century are finding even that we differ from the nineteenth century in divers manners and respects. But the birth of the republic lies in the eighteenth century and the founders were all eighteenth century men, hence incomprehensible to us or at least unsympathetic in minor things. But we must not permit ourselves to grow ungrateful to them, those wonderful men by virtue of those whose labors we are as we are today. Washington, Franklin, Jefferson, Samuel and John Adams, and Alexander Hamilton were able men of their century. They were of a world not yet revised by the French revolution. What enlightenment they had was their century's and they could not be congnizant of twentieth century sentiments and problems. Of these great men, Washington was the greatest.

An English publicist not so long ago called Washington the greatest man of the eighteenth century. And the measure of the work he performed bears out the estimate. In consequence his work has been greater than the work of the Earl of Chatham, or of Frederick, king of Prussia. And no other names can be held as even his rivals in that century.

The world has appraised Lincoln as one of the commanding figures of all countries and all times. Hannibal, Ceasar and Napoleon were great, because they fought their way to greatness behind conquering armies. Lincoln was great because he was human. He knew that he could "fool some of the people all of the time," but "not all of the people all of the time." Knowing that, he never tried to fool any of the people any of the time.

Lincoln is sympathetic to us today, but Washington is removed and stately, a formal eighteenth century provincial English gentleman. But let us not forget to honor him who was in actual fact the father of his country, the winner of its independence on the battlefield the organizer of its central government, with the assistance of his two chosen friends, Alexander Hamilton and John Marshall.

Lincoln holds the hearts of our people. Washington has our reverence. The years are deepening the fame of both men, and this month we Americans can show our hearts are in the right place by paying honor to the memory of the two greatest figures in our history.

Some things are mighty hard to square with some other things —for instance, internal revenue receipts from whisky, beer and cigarettes were greater in 1916 than in any year in the history of the government.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys, and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleanses out all the fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES AND NEWS

LINCOLN DAY

On Monday morning, February 12, commemoration exercises will be held in the High School Assembly, in honor of the great Emancipator, Abraham Lincoln.

The most pleasing feature of the entire program to the students perhaps will be the remarks of honor and respect to Lincoln given by members of the local G. A. R. These patriots of a passing generation, are always glad to pay tribute to Lincoln or to instill in the younger generation the same feeling of patriotism that prompted them one and all, to answer so eagerly Lincoln's call to arms when our nation was nearing just such reefs and shoals as now threaten her. In consideration of this fact, it is particularly fitting that we honor with voice and thought the one who carried the Republic safely through a crisis as great or perhaps greater than that which we now face. Folfowing is the program:

Selections by the Orchestra.

Poem "On the Portrait of Lincoln" (Sterling) Edna Inman.

Tributes to Lincoln,

Extract from an address by Roosevelt.

Extract from an address by Wilson, Norman Woodford.

The Meaning of the Flag (Secretary Lane) Helen Boyd.

Remarks by members of G. A. R.

Singing of "America."

RICHMOND TO PLAY MARTINEZ

On Friday night, next, one of the fastest basketball games of the season will be played at the High School Gym, when the local basketers meet the Martinez teams. Martinez has won the championship of the Upper County League and Richmond has defeated nearly every one of its opponents, so the title will be hotly contested for the game being virtually, if not technically, for the championship of the county. Coach Norton pronounces the local team in A 1 condition.

The girls' team which has won four out of five inter-school games played so far this season feels confident of running up a sizeable score against the Martinez girls.

It is hoped that an enthusiastic crowd of local basketball fans will be present to back the teams, for the contests promise more interest and excitement than can ordinarily be bought for twenty-five cents, the price of admission.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE

Mr. Norton, basketball coach from the University, put the team through a hard workout last evening. Basket shooting and trick plays, followed by a quick, stiff game between the first and second teams, made a good two hours' practice. Interest in basketball has been doubled by the prospect of the game with Martinez.

SENIOR GIRLS TO PLAN SIMPLE DRESSES

A meeting of the senior girls of the high school will be called next week to discuss the dresses for graduation exercises. In the face of the present high cost of living it is necessary that expenses be reduced to a minimum and the Richmond high school girls will probably decide on simple gowns of inexpensive material and simple style following the custom of former years.

$1,289,000 IS NECESSARY FOR PURCHASE OF SITE

the purchase of Hunter's Point site, as it would cost about double that amount, according to estimates furnished by real estate experts. If the Goat Island location were in view no money would be needed, as the island already belongs to the government, and is mainly in the possession of the navy department. Alameda has offered its proposed site free of charge, and therefore no appropriation would be required to get it. By the process of elimination it seems the Albany-Richmond site has a good chance to win the approval of the naval commission.

Some of the San Francisco papers repeat this morning the intimation that Hunter's Point seems to be favored by the navy board. In the opinion of those who live on this side of the bay this assumption is entirely gratuitous, as there is nothing in the report as given by the press dispatches to warrant such interpretation.

STRUGGLES IN TENEMENT SECTION OF N. Y. AT RICHMOND THEATER

A bit of humanity picked from the busy activities of tenement life, beset with the same joys and sorrows as come to us every day and with such perplexities as daily enter the lives of many similar little waifs, Polly in the new Pallas-Paramount photoplay "The right Direction," is a character of marvelous appeal. Vivian Martin as Polly, who is cast adrift in the world with her baby brother "Billy Boy," is a "little mother" of such genuineness and realism that the heart interest touches of the baby boy and the faithful tramp dog "Rags" form but a delightful background to a wonderful characterization that fills this remarkable story with pathos, love, fearlessness and much that stirs the heart.

Why did Polly leave her New York home? Because the tenement that had been her home was taken from her and she was left to drift alone in the world. Why did she tramp towards California? Because the charity doctor said that California would cure, "Billy Boy," her baby brother, and railway travel costs money. The many events that happened on that walk to California the Pallas-Paramount screen story "The Right Direction," at the Richmond theater, today and tomorrow tells in a way that holds one's interest to the very last scene.

In February for that year only four one-hundredths of an inch of rain fell.
